RECTOR'S NOTES

WORSHIP IN FEBRUARY

On Sunday 1st February, which is both St Brigid's Day and the Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany, there will be a choral celebration of Holy Communion at 10.30am.

On Sunday 8th February, we will be celebrating Candlemas, formally known as "The Presentation of Christ in the Temple." Technically, this Principal Holy Day falls on Monday 2nd February and by rights we should transfer it to the Sunday before, but we will bend the rules slightly this year so that we can reflect upon it at our Family Service at 10.30am and at Choral Evensong at 3.30pm on this second Sunday of the month. Normally, this Sunday would liturgically be called the Second Sunday before Lent, historically known as Sexagesima, which is the sixtieth day before Easter (not including Sundays).

On Sunday 15th February, it is the Sunday before Lent, historically known as Quinquagesima, which is the fiftieth day before Easter. There will be a choral celebration of Holy Communion at 10.30am.

On Sunday 22nd February, which is the First Sunday in Lent, there will be a choral service of Morning Prayer at 10.30am. As I know you love the Latin names for these days, you will be delighted to learn that historically it is known as Quadragesima, which is the fortieth day before Easter.

Throughout the month, our mid-week services are at 10.30am each Wednesday. These will be celebrations of Holy Communion. On the last Wednesday of the month, which is 25th February, we will use the old form of the liturgy from the 1662 Book of Common Prayer.

Of special note is 18th February, which is Ash Wednesday. As this date is the beginning of the season of Lent, there will be a special Penitential Service which will include Holy Communion. Please note that there will not be the imposition of ashes.

PARISH ACTIVITIES

The Discipleship Group will meet at 7.30pm on Thursday 5th February in the Minor Hall. As we will be reflecting upon our sinfulness during the penitential season of Lent later during the month, the appropriate theme for our discussion will be “What is sin?”

The Bible Fellowship will meet at 7.30pm on both Thursday 12th and 26th February in the Minor Hall. We have finished our study of the Exodus, and will now turn our attention to the Book of Judges. This book covers a period of a few hundred years, from just after the conquest of Canaan by the Israelites, until just before the establishment of the monarchy under King Saul.

The Bereavement Group will meet at midday on Wednesday 11th February in the church. This lasts around 45 minutes, and includes prayers and a discussion on a relevant theme.

The Prayer Group will meet at midday on Wednesday 18th February, which is Ash Wednesday, in the church.

The Morning Bible Study will meet at 11.30am on Wednesday 25th February in the Minor Hall. We will begin a study of the Acts of the Apostles. As this group meets only once a month, this will undoubtedly take us through much of this calendar year. Feel free to come along as often as you can.

REGISTERED MEMBERS

Every year in February, we update the list of Registered Members of the parish, and this will take place at 7.30pm on Monday 23rd February in the Minor Hall. This is a special meeting of the Select Vestry, and only the Trustees are required to attend.

Registration forms for new members are available at the back of the church and they need to be completed and returned to a Churchwarden or myself prior to Monday 23rd February. There is a form for registration as a Resident Member, and a form for registration as an Accustomed Member.

Technically a parishioner is any person who lives within the parish boundaries, whether or not they attend worship in St Peter's. However, those who do come to church may register their membership, which gives them the right (subject to receipt of a donation to parish funds) to take part in meetings of the General Vestry. Such a person is registered as a Resident Member.

Anyone who lives outside the parish, but who attends worship in St Peter's, may also apply for registration. This too gives them the right (subject to receipt of a donation to parish funds and if attendance requirements are met) to take part in meetings of the General Vestry. Such a person is registered as an Accustomed Member. If you are currently an Accustomed Member, please ensure that you have (or will have) attended worship in St Peter's at least once since 23rd November 2025.

It may be of interest to those who have recently begun worshipping in St Peter's, that a person may be a Resident Member of one parish, and at the same time an Accustomed Member another parish, as long as recorded donations are made to both parishes each year. Note that you can be an Accustomed Member of only one parish, not two or more.

The purpose of the annual Review Meeting in February (which must not be confused with the General Vestry which is held closer to Easter) is simply to update the list of Registered Members. We do so by removing the names of those who have sadly died during the prior twelve months, or who have not made a recorded donation to parish funds during the prior twelve months, or who have sent a letter asking for their name to be removed.

The current list of Registered Members (last updated in February 2025) is pinned to the noticeboard at the back of St Peter's. Take a moment in the coming weeks to see whether or not your name is on it. If not, and if you make a recorded donation to parish funds, then please fill in a registration form. If you are currently a Registered Member, then please make sure that you have made a recorded donation to parish funds in the last twelve months, to ensure that your name remains on the list.

ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS

Thank you to everyone who made our services and activities at the end of last year so meaningful and enjoyable. Everything that happens in our church or our halls requires some level of preparation, and there is often a team of people behind the scenes who bring it to fruition. I am very grateful to Robert Thompson for once again providing our Christmas Tree, and to his assistants for decorating it. For our acts of worship, we had our Parish Readers, our Choir and our Organist, our lectors, our intercessors, our Churchwardens, our Parish Administrator, our Refreshments Team, and the members of our Altar Guild, all doing their bit to ensure that from the moment you walk through the door of St Peter's, everything was ready to enable you to praise God and to have fellowship with one another. Thank you to everyone involved.

One of the highlights of the year, particularly for parents and grandparents, is our Nativity Service, which was held on the Sunday before Christmas. Unlike schools which can devote time to regular rehearsals, we need to find a way of involving the children without requiring too much from them in terms of preparation. How we do that is different from one year to the next, depending on the age and ability of those involved, but I think we struck the right note this time around. We had about fifteen children dressed up and taking part, and I am very thankful to them and their parents.

It was lovely to have Christmas Lunch on Sunday 21st December in our own halls, prepared by Judith Cowan and her team of helpers. As anyone who has cooked a Christmas Dinner for six people will tell you, the idea of cooking for over sixty people sounds challenging! And yet Judith and her assistants did amazingly, and we were all treated to a lovely festive three-course meal. Thank you so much to them for all that hard work.

A special word of thanks to our choir, who – in addition to their regular duties – led our praise at our Advent Carol Service, Nine Lessons & Carols, and Choral Eucharist on Christmas Eve. These services appeal not just to our regular members, but to the local community as well, and they showcase the care and excellence with which our worship of God is conducted. Thank you to each chorister, and to our Choir Master Robert Thompson, and to our occasional guest organist Tristan Russcher.

WILL YOU OPEN GOD'S GIFT?

It's ironic that so many people in this world have no sense of God, no awareness of God—and yet, God desperately wants us to know him. We have, of course, the Bible to reveal something of God to us, and the Bible stories themselves tell us about dreams and visions, and similar forms of divine revelation. But to truly reveal himself, he chose to do the thing that we are here celebrating tonight: he immersed himself in this world; he inhabited his creation; and he became a little baby boy.

You might think it would take another thirty years or so for that child to grow up and begin to actually reveal something about God to us. But the truth is, the nature and the will of God are there in the story of his birth: we see his humility, his rejection of worldly values, his preference for the poor and the outcast, and of course the proclamation of the angel Gabriel that he came to save us. And the funeral ointment myrrh (the third gift of the Wise Men) points towards the mechanism of that salvation, which will be his death.

So the Birth Story is not just the stuff of children's nativity plays. It is a summary of the Good News, and it tells us that this little baby boy is unlike any other. He is, instead, the only person who could reconcile God and humanity—and that is God himself. And we see that in the description given to the child by the angel: "He will be called Emmanuel, which means, God is with us." Jesus is, literally, God with us.

Emmanuel is just one of many ways the Biblical writers describe Jesus. St Paul, writing to Titus, describes him like this: "The grace of God has appeared." Now, grace is a word every Christian should know. It means God's love for those who do not deserve it. But when Paul says "the grace of God has appeared" he isn't saying that an idea has appeared, as if someone has thought up a new concept. He is describing Jesus as the living embodiment of grace. He is saying that Jesus is the love of God wrapped in flesh and blood. Perhaps more famously, St John, in his Gospel, describes Jesus as "the Word." "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us." And he explains that this "Word" is God himself.

So we find in Scripture different words, but the same truth being proclaimed: that in the person of Jesus, God has come close. God is with us. But here's the problem. Spend any time in religious circles and you'll hear people narrowing the meaning of that word "us." You will hear "God is with us"—meaning the ones who go to church every Sunday, or the ones who go to the right church, or the ones who give the most money, or the ones who look the holiest.

But that exclusive interpretation of the word “us” is not what Scripture says. St Paul makes it clear to Titus: grace brings salvation to everyone. Not to the few. Not to the self appointed deserving. Not to the religious elite. But to all. And the Nativity story proves it. Shepherds were welcomed. Wise men were welcomed. Mary and Joseph, poor and ordinary, were welcomed. The only person excluded, King Herod, chose to exclude himself.

So the birth story reminds us that the love of God is for everyone. For you. For me. For the annoying neighbour we try to avoid. For the homeless person we disregard on the street. For all the people we have written off as not worthy of our respect, our friendship, our trust, or our kindness. The grace of God has appeared, and it is for all. And the reason we can confidently say it is for all is because no one deserves it. Not one of us. We are all equally undeserving of God’s love. And therefore—and this is the good bit—we are all equally loved by him. That is the breadth and depth of salvation. It is a gift from God beyond anything the world can offer to us. And it is the gift which keeps on giving. Because salvation is not the end, but the beginning.

Paul says grace is “training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly.” In other words, grace is not just something to be accepted. It is something that changes us. It refines us. It improves us. It makes us more and more like Jesus: generous, kind, loving, forgiving, merciful. Because Jesus came not just to show us by example how to live; he came to change us from within. He is literally God with us. And he wants to be born within us every day. What a wonderful gift. The question is: are you willing to receive it?

PAUSE FOR THOUGHT AND PRAYER

by Rosemary Johnston

‘Forgive us our trespasses ...’

This month we come to the season of Lent when we ponder our own misdoings and failures and think about Jesus coming to save us from the consequences of our sins. We seek forgiveness for our own sins but, as Jesus says, we ought also to forgive those who have offended us—not once but ‘seventy times seven’. I must not be resentful, or take umbrage at a perceived offence, or continue bearing a grudge, or misconstrue the motivations of others. Whatever I do or say I must do it or say it through love and compassion. Being harsh with someone when I am so imperfect myself makes me a hypocrite. Bearing a grudge, convinced that I am in the right; i.e. being thrown by thinking why should I make the first move? Sadly we hear of families where some haven’t spoken to each other in years. This must sadden our heavenly Father who wants us all to live together in harmony. Unless someone takes the first step at reconciliation the whole sad situation may continue. But when that first step is taken think of the joy in heaven and in the family/community at this big step; for example, my prayer for the royal family is that each member reaches out the hand of love and forgiveness, kindness and reconciliation. As the Rector very wisely says—we shouldn’t bear grudges as then two people suffer, the person who caused the offence and the one who refuses to forgive. I am still on a learning path and I know God is ‘refining’ me to make me fit to enter his Kingdom. Lent will be an opportunity for me to study the scriptures more closely, especially in the bible classes and extra services, and to appreciate the sacrifice Jesus made for me and for us all. May I also remember the commandment to love one another as Jesus loves us. If I put that front and centre of my life and fix my eyes upon Jesus I know I am on the right path.

*Heavenly Father,
you want only the best for us and your beloved Son, out of the great love you have for us, paid the price for the redemption of our sins.
Help us to walk with him in the coming weeks and to make his ways our ways. Amen.*

FEBRUARY FLOWER LIST

15TH CAROLYN HILDITCH
IN MEMORY OF HER MOTHER

Thank you to all who give of their time and effort in beautifying the church with flowers.

If practical, flowers should be in keeping with the liturgical colour of the season, particularly during Advent and Lent.

FLOWERS IN CHURCH

The Flower List for 2026 is now open for bookings and we would ask that all existing contributors contact the Parish Office to confirm their usual Sunday for the coming year. As there are always some Sundays left available some of you may like to come forward and offer to provide flowers, perhaps to mark a particular occasion or anniversary. It may be a wedding anniversary, the birth of a child or grandchild, to remember the death of a family member, or indeed as an act of thanksgiving for some notable blessing. All such donors will be acknowledged on the church notice board and in the Parish Notes.

We really appreciate all who provide flowers and also those who devote time and energy in arranging them and looking after them mid-week. We try to have flowers that are in keeping with the liturgical seasons, particularly during Lent, so this year bright displays of flowers are not permitted on the following Sundays: 22nd February, 1st March, 8th March, 22nd March and 29th March (15th March is exempt from restrictions). If you need any help regarding floral displays please contact Sandra Davison, our church flower co-ordinator, tel 07738 403667.

Would you have time to join one of our church cleaning groups? If so, there is a sign up sheet at the back of the church.
